

CANDIDATES FOR ALDERMEN

J. E. Concannon and Louis P. Head Announce This Morning.

Two new candidates for aldermen announce this morning in J. E. Concannon and Louis P. Head, both subject to the action of the white democratic primaries.

Mr. Concannon aspires to be alderman from precinct No. 15, and will oppose W. B. Wright for the office. He has been a resident of the precinct for the past nine years, and has many friends who have urged him to enter the political arena. Mr. Concannon is a young man and has been very successful as a business man. He is only 32 years of age and believes that he can fill the office to the satisfaction of the voters of that precinct.

Mr. Head announces for alderman at large from precinct No. 15, in opposition to Walker Ingraham and John G. Welsh, and solicits the vote of his friends throughout the city, as he is to be voted upon in all precincts. The aspirant for the office has been a resident of Pensacola for about two years, and during his residence has made a number of friends who have promised him their support in the approaching primaries, and who have urged him to enter the contest.

CHICAGO MAN HERE IN 1868

Windy City Policeman's First Visit Was on Bark Patriot.

Frank Eastman, a member of the Chicago police force, who has been in the city for several days, will leave this morning for Jacksonville and South Florida for a short visit.

Mr. Eastman first visited Pensacola in 1868, coming here as a sailor on the Norwegian bark Patriot, which was wrecked in this harbor in that year. She was struck by lightning while anchored in the stream, being capsized as a result. One of the crew was burned to death.

Mr. Eastman has been on duty as "crossing" officer for 21 years in Chicago at the corner of Lake and State streets. He will return to Chicago via Pensacola.

TAFT HAILED AS "BILL" BY MEN OF YALE

President Greeted in New York by 1500 Graduates of the Famous Old University, and Given Banquet.

By Associated Press. New York, March 19.—With songs of the gridiron and with the deafening and rousing chorus of "Here's to good old Yale, drink her down," President Taft was greeted tonight as the first Yale president of the United States by more than 1,500 graduates of the famous old university.

President Taft was probably the happiest man at the dinner, which was entirely in his honor. He was not hailed as president, however, but as "Bill," the salutation which punctuated the cheering as he entered.

SESSION AT OCALA WAS A BIG SUCCESS

Crowds Present to Hear Director Routzahn at the Fourth Session of One-Day Health Institutes.

Special to The Journal. Ocala, Fla., March 19.—One prominent citizen said that no subject of public concern had ever brought so representative an audience as gathered in the county court house this evening at the fourth session of the one-day health institutes conducted by the Ocala Woman's club, in co-operation with the medical society and board of trade.

Director E. G. Routzahn is being entertained as a guest of the Marion County Medical society. Following an automobile tour of the city, the Woman's club, with the least number of the city, held a special preliminary session. Both white and colored schools followed with open-air meetings, and city officials, business and professional men and prominent women crowded the courtroom for the evening session.

Tonight, the whites and the negroes have stereopticon-lessons on health at the Orpheum theatre. This is the fourth of a series of very successful institutes conducted by Florida women's clubs and the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. Saturday and Sunday will be rest days for Director Routzahn and will be spent at Daytona and Palm Beach. The next institute will be on Monday at Miami and Wednesday at Key West.

ROOSEVELT ON SOCIALISM.

New York, March 19.—In the current issue of the Outlook appears the first of a series of articles by Theodore Roosevelt on socialism. After discussing the position of scientific socialism or communism, the ex-president says: "On the social and domestic side, doctrinaire socialism would replace the family and home life by a glorified state free lunch counter and state founding asylum, deliberately enthroning self-indulgence as the ideal with, on its darker side, the absolute abandonment of all morality as between man and woman."

TAFT'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Washington, March 19.—A serious accident to the train on which President Taft and his party journeyed from Washington to New York yesterday probably was averted through the discovery of a defect in one of the wheels of a coach, which was part of the train as first made up, according to railroad officials here today. The defect was a crack 15 inches long. A car inspector discovered the break and notified Trainmaster Cooper who had the coach detached and another placed on the train.

INTERVENTION IN PERSIA.

St. Petersburg, March 1.—All preparations are now completed for military intervention in Persia, should such a step be necessary. The third rifle battalion, with its field equipment, arrived at Julfa, on the Persian frontier, today. The men are under canvas in the expectation of orders to proceed to Tabriz. The Saliansk regiment also is in readiness to move at a moment's notice. Supplies and equipment are now being sent forward from Resht. Another regiment stationed at Yelizavethol has been ordered to prepare for field service.

A PROTEST RAISED.

Chicago, March 19.—Chicago artists and connoisseurs have raised their voices to protest against the clause in the new tariff bill exempting from duty only such works of art as are twenty years old or older. The provision is branded as an imposition to protect certain contemporary American artists who fear their present popularity would suffer if they were compelled to compete with the best work of the artists from over the seas.

A WORLD UNION.

Chicago, March 19.—A world union of working men was outlined here today at the meeting of the national executive board of the Women's Trade Union. Letters have been sent out to women workers in every country in Europe and to Japanese women interested in improving the conditions of labor, asking them to send delegates to the annual convention of the league which will be held here September 22.

There was a great many visitors from here last Saturday to attend the Chautauque at DeFuniak Springs. All had a most delightful day. We are having real spring weather now and the farmers are very busy preparing and planting their farms. There is a great deal of farming carried on in this part of the country and with much success.

T. J. Wright is located here now and is at work on the large trestle across the river.

MILLIGAN.

Special to The Journal. Milligan, Fla., March 18.—An immense amount of commercial fertilizer has been carried away from this place this season by farmers who are getting their ground in readiness for planting. Farming, we are glad to state, is on a much more extensive scale this year than last, and with improved machinery, too. There is no better soil in West Florida than the belt of land four miles west of here, extending north toward Andalusia, Ala., and some fine farming is done there, too. At Cobb, the view is unobstructed for two miles, consisting of three farms joined together, perfectly level, and, when the corn and cotton reaches maturity it presents an inspiring scene.

Interesting Meeting of School Improvement Assn.

that might be much improved. In nearly every case school rooms show a need of retinting and repainting. Many of the walls are badly stained, none are fresh, few have been colored with due regard for lighting. In almost all cases the colors are too dark and invariably the ceilings are too dark. In several instances wooden partitions in the darkest portion of rooms have been painted to absorb rather than to reflect light. Your committee has been informed that the former school board would follow the suggestions along this line submitted in the report of the decoration committee in making future repairs and we trust that our present school board will confirm that decision.

In several school buildings we find no provision made for laying the dust. Old brushes are provided, but are not in condition. We would call attention to the danger from floor dust settling over desks, exposed cups, etc.

"The sanitary provisions at all schools visited were in all cases very ready in need of attention, consisting usually of shallow open vaults, poorly cared for and certainly dangerous from the standpoint of health. In one case conditions were filthy beyond description.

"In view of the fact that sewer connections must soon be made, we would suggest that a study should be made by a competent authority with the view of making recommendations for adequate treatment of this entire feature.

"We would respectfully recommend that janitors be required to scrub all floors and use disinfectants at least four times during each school term; that woodwork and windows be cleaned at least twice during each term; that closets be scrubbed and disinfected used at least once each week.

School No. 1.

"At school No. 1 we find marked improvement in grounds and a spirit of enterprise on the part of the teachers and scholars is very evident.

"Some of the walls in this building should be repainted before another school term.

"In some rooms, particularly those occupied by Misses McClay and Reese, the lighting could be greatly improved by simple changes mentioned in the former report. The laboratory and other basement rooms also badly need such attention.

"The furnaces for this building are located in the basement, which is filled with rubbish from which the air for heating is drawn. This is dangerous both from the standpoint of health, and fire.

"We would urgently recommend that immediate attention be given the toilet facilities at this school, as elsewhere, and that separate toilets within the building be provided for teachers.

School No. 70.

"Within a few weeks the retaining walls and walks about this building will be in condition to permit much needed permanent improvement.

"On the interior this building presents a very bad appearance. The walls and ceilings of every room should have prompt attention as their present condition is not calculated to have a good moral effect upon the pupils. Blackboards need attention.

School No. 40.

"Here we found three young contractors doing excellent work grading the grounds, two had each a handle of a wheelbarrow and one was harnessed to the front of the vehicle, and with great labor they were giving finishing touches to what had formerly been an unsightly yard. Although outside the sidewalk limit, a sidewalk is needed before the grounds will present a proper appearance.

"Walls of one room show a bad leak, which is not only unsightly but injurious to the building and the ceilings are entirely too dark in color.

School No. 2.

"The grounds here show some attempt at improvement and much opportunity for development. Trees are needed.

"The walls are better than elsewhere, but ceilings and wood work are too dark.

"The unused basement of this building would supply the space needed for vocational training.

School No. 74.

"Evidently much attention has been given to these grounds. The front has been laid off into flower beds, and flowers are growing about the fences. Benches have been placed around the trees, but some of them badly need attention and the back yards do not show the same care as the front. Cinders now dumped in yard might be used to make yard walks.

"We would call special attention to the small hall room, which is very poorly lighted. This could be greatly benefited by removing the stove from its present location near the windows, and placing the darkest row of benches in its place. This room is tinted in light absorbing colors and the condition which must be very injurious to pupils in that room, could be relieved at the expense of a few dollars for retinting.

School No. 80.

"School No. 80 is much improved by the draining of butcher pen pond and by the placing of street crossings, but sidewalks are badly needed. This is a pitiful little school of three rooms, unhealthily crowded with children. Something should be done before the next school term to relieve the congestion and to brighten up the forelorn interior.

"Here we found two janitors, who proudly informed us that they "did all the work, all the time," and were respectively seven and nine years of age.

In Conclusion

"We would say that on the whole, our schools are in much better condition physically than at the time of our last report, and should this year show an equal expenditure of money and interest the most objectionable of present conditions will be almost entirely removed.

sister-in-law, father and mother, the latter two reaching the jail after the verdict, went to the room he has occupied for several months in the jail and there held a little reunion with the Coopers. With tears of disappointment in their eyes, the two daughters of Col. Cooper still congratulated the Sharps heartily upon their good luck and listened in turn to the good wishes in their own behalf.

As he left the court room, Reid Sharp, youngest brother of John, received the congratulations of friends, and to all he remarked, "This is not the end of this case."

SEARCHING FOR NEGRO.

Cabot, Ark., March 19.—A posse of citizens are searching today for an unidentified negro who yesterday attempted to assault Miss Bertie Warren, daughter of a farmer residing several miles west of this place. The girl was choked into insensibility by the negro, who was frightened away by the approach of the girl's mother. Should the negro be captured a lynching is anticipated.
